CONSIDER DĀNA

To Members and Friends:

The purpose of the Alameda Center for Buddhist Meditation (ACBM) is supporting, fostering and advancing the teachings and practices of Buddhism in North America, and especially the tradition of Samatha ("calm-concentration") meditation practice as taught by Nai Boonman Poonyathiro.

Over three months ago, the shelter-in-place order was issued for Alameda County. Our Samatha teachers and meditators have joined others around the country to establish online classes and practices to continue support of all members of ACBM and the larger sangha. Many of you have expressed gratitude for this continuity.

We had hoped this would be temporary, but it has become clear it will continue for some time into the future. We all miss practicing in our meditation center at Ballena Bay, but have decided to maintain the center for now. We hope to find a way to gather safely outdoors sometime this summer, using the center as a resource to support that effort.

Since we are using online practices, we no longer have an opportunity for visitors and sangha members to make an offering of generosity to the dana bowl at the center. The costs of rent and insurance for the center modestly exceed $1000/month. A little more than half is covered by committed monthly contributions. The balance is from other contributions as they are made. Although we entered the crisis with a few months reserve, unfortunately, we have had to dip into the reserve to maintain the center.

ACBM is wholly supported by voluntary contributions. Please consider a contribution to the maintenance of ACBM so that we can emerge again with our oasis of peace and tranquility in place for all who come. As you all know, Samatha teachings are given freely. Contributions to ACBM are solely used to support the practice center located in Alameda for Samatha meditation activities, events, and courses offered throughout the year.

*One-time and ongoing contributions are both warmly welcome.

Please consider making an ongoing monthly contribution if you can. An easy way to send your contribution is by using the "donate" button on the ACBM website:
